CLASS 25: Athletic apparel, namely, shirts, pants, jackets, footwear, hats and caps, athletic uniforms

FIRST USE 9-25-2018; IN COMMERCE 9-25-2018

The mark consists of two concentric circles; within the concentric circles, the word "INNER -G" is at the top, and the word "ATHLETICS" is at the bottom; the font of these words shows an outline of each letter with space between the outer lines of the letters; within the inner circle, there is a stylized letter "G" which supports a 5-pointed crown, with the middle point being a bit taller than the two points to the left and to the right; however, each point in the crown has a rounded circle at the top, such that the points of the crown are not sharp; the stylized letter G beneath the crown has space between the inner and outer curves and features, closely approximating the space between the two concentric circles; the top tip of the G blends into the flat anvil of the G, without marked differentiation.

No claim is made to the exclusive right to use the following apart from the mark as shown: "ATHLETICS"

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.
